Public Libraries

Don't forget that your Public Libraries are here to help! Many are setting up online measures to renew cards online and set up other methods of using their services. For instance, Cedar Park Public Libraries are allowing for Porch Pickup of physical items.

OverDrive

OverDrive is a free audio and e-book platform that is used with the public library systems! If you have a library card, then you have FREE access to 1000s of books online. On your devices and computers, just download the OverDrive App and follow the prompts. You will need your library card number accessible during the initial login, but after that you should already be set up. The only thing you would need to do is select which library you would like to pull from.

Audible

Audible is Amazon's bank of audiobooks. Right now, while schools are closed, they are making audio books for kids FREE! 1000s of books, multiple languages, and a myriad of topics are all available to students on whatever devices they want to stream content from. This is definitely something that should be taken advantage of!

Story Online

This website is great for our younger students! Join a plethora of celebrities and authors as they read a picture book. These stories, however, are accompanied by an interactive video. They have a website, as well as their own YouTube channel.

Also think about following your favorite authors and illustrators on Facebook and other social media outlets—a lot of them are doing story time and doodling sessions: Peter H. Reynolds and Mo Willems are just a few of these names!

During this time, we just want to remind you that you are not alone. We are there for you and a lot of education platforms are too. The Education world is bubbling over with amazing resources for free. Please utilize them! We also want to make sure that our avid readers are finding places they can get their fix on books :)

Happy Reading!
